SEVEN WOMEN SERVE AS OFFICERS OF UM SPURS

MISSOULA--

Seven members of Tanan of Spur at the University of Montana are serving as officers of the sophomore women's service honorary for the current school year.

Members of the honorary are chosen on the basis of scholastic achievement and social concern. The basic goal of Spurs is to give support to the community and the campus. The group achieves this through volunteer services, fund-raising events and other activities.

Spurs also offer free tours of the University campus for newcomers or interested groups.

The officers are: Linda Tiffany, Billings, president; Amy Bishop, Brady, vice president; Doreen Manley, Laurel, treasurer; Susan Johnson, Anaconda, secretary, Barb Rigg, Great Falls, public relations chairperson; Pauline Banieri, Great Falls, editor, and Marcie Sokoloski, Great Falls, historian.

Tiffany is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Armogost. The graduate of Billings Senior High school is a business administration major at the UM.

Bishop, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bishop, majors in home economics. She is a graduate of Brady High School.

Manley, a business administration major, is a graduate of Laurel High School. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Byrne Manley.

Johnson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Johnson, is a graduate of Anaconda High School and a pharmacy major at the University.
